Severance Music Center to host free Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration Concert on September 13

(Photo credit: Scott Esterly)

CLEVELAND — Severance Music Center will once again come alive with rhythm, culture, and community during its annual Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration Concert on Saturday, September 13, at 7 p.m.

Cleveland’s own Sammy DeLeon y su Orquesta will take the stage with his expanded Latin jazz ensemble for an unforgettable evening of music and dancing. Known for their electrifying performances and authentic Latin sound, DeLeon and his orchestra promise to deliver a powerful, high-energy celebration in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month.

The Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration Concert is part of The Cleveland Orchestra’s ongoing commitment to community engagement and cultural celebration through music.
