The Cleveland Orchestra and Cain Park cancel free community concert

CLEVELAND— The Cleveland Orchestra announces that its free community concert at Cain Park, scheduled for Wednesday, September 2, at 8 p.m., has been canceled because of extreme heat.

The Cleveland Orchestra and Cain Park made this decision with the safety and well-being of concertgoers, musicians, and staff in mind.

The Orchestra thanks the community for its understanding and looks forward to welcoming guests to Severance Music Center during its upcoming season.
