LOS ANGELES, CA (November 10, 2026) — The LA Phil today reveals initial details of the 2027 Hollywood Bowl summer season. With the Hollywood Bowl serving as the summer home of the Los Angeles Philharmonic for over 100 years, the 2027 season continues the tradition of presenting classical concerts on Tuesday and Thursday night. A star-studded roster of guest conductors and artists join the orchestra including Gustavo Dudamel, the Diane and M. David Paul Artistic and Cultural Laureate of the LA Phil and the Jane and Michael Eisner Founding Director and Conductor Laureate of YOLA (Youth Orchestra Los Angeles), and Ellen and Arnold Zetcher Conductor-in-Residence Anna Handler. In addition, the 2027 season marks the beginning of Joe Hisaishi's tenure as LA Phil Composer-in-Residence for the Hollywood Bowl and The Ford.

Jazz Plus nights offer a wide-ranging trip through the world of jazz and beyond. Weekends will be filled with some of the biggest names in popular music, selections of films and film music, and the KCRW Festival features an eclectic array of exciting popular artists and rising stars.

Specific programming already in place for the Hollywood Bowl 2027 season include:

The biggest British comedy show to play the Hollywood Bowl since Monty Python makes its way across the pond for Taskmaster Live On Stage, Tuesday, June 22, and Wednesday, June 23.

A Roots Picnic Experience returns on Friday, June 25. The legendary Roots crew bring their celebration of hip-hop history back to the Bowl for a fourth year. Tickets go on sale this Friday, November 13, at 10am.

The B-52s bring their wild energy—and hits like "Love Shack," "Rock Lobster" and "Roam"—to headline the ever-popular July Fourth Fireworks Spectacular in three performances, July 2, 3 and 4. Thomas Wilkins starts off these firework-filled nights leading the Los Angeles Philharmonic in patriotic music for this annual Bowl tradition.

Commemorating four decades of the iconic video game, The Legend of Zelda 40th Anniversary Concert makes its Hollywood Bowl debut on Wednesday, August 25.

About the Hollywood Bowl

One of the largest outdoor amphitheaters in the world, the Hollywood Bowl seats nearly 18,000 and has been the summer home of the Los Angeles Philharmonic since its official opening in 1922. As a public park owned by the County of Los Angeles Department of Parks and Recreation and operated in partnership with the LA Phil, the Hollywood Bowl welcomes visitors from around the world and hosts the finest artists across all genres of music. For over a century, the Hollywood Bowl has offered some of the best entertainment value in Los Angeles—with many classical and jazz performances still offering $1 seats at the top of the venue. In April 2026, it was named Outdoor Concert Venue of the Year at the 37th Annual Pollstar Awards, marking the 18th time it has received this honor. For millions of Southern California music lovers, the Hollywood Bowl remains synonymous with summer. hollywoodbowl.com

About the LA Phil

The LA Phil offers live performances, media initiatives, and learning programs that inspire and strengthen communities in Los Angeles and beyond. The Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra is the foundation of the LA Phil's offerings, which also include a multi-genre, multidisciplinary presenting program and such youth development programs as YOLA (Youth Orchestra Los Angeles). Performances are offered across four historic venues—Walt Disney Concert Hall, the Hollywood Bowl, The Ford, and Beckmen YOLA Center—as well as through a variety of media platforms. In all its endeavors, the LA Phil seeks to enrich the lives of individuals and communities through musical, artistic and learning experiences that resonate in our world today.
